Delay in issuing passports

†426. PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that much time is taken in issuing new passports and it even goes beyond the maximum time limit of five weeks;

(b) if so, the number of cases where it took more than five weeks and the percentage of such cases, out of the total passport issued; and

(c) whether Government have held any officer responsible for taking more than five weeks time in issuing passports, if so, the passport office-wise details of the last two years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) to (c) Passports are normally issued within a period of 4 to 5 weeks. However, in certain cases there have been instances of delay beyond the stipulated period. These are mainly due to non-receipt/incomplete or adverse Police Reports, furnishing of false/incomplete material information by the applicant, delayed supply of passport booklets by India Security Press, Nasik and are thus beyond the control of the passport issuing authorities.

The MoU will come into effect after ratification by both the Governments which is under process.

India and Sri Lanka have an Understanding on humane treatment and early release of fishermen which has been reiterated during the visit of Sri Lankan President to India in November, 2004 and subsequent high level contacts. With other neighbouring countries, the problems pertaining to arrest of Indian fishermen are very few. Whenever such cases arise, the matter is taken up with the Governments concerned through diplomatic channels for early release of the Indian fishermen.
